Homicide Investigation

The Birmingham Police Department reports that detectives are conducting a homicide investigation. The incident occurred Thursday, May 5, 2016 in the 2900 block of Gallant Drive.

The victim has been identified as:

Damon McCain, B/M, 44 of Center Point, Alabama

On Thursday, May 05, 2016 around 11:55 am, officers from the East Precinct responded to the listed location on two people shot. Upon arrival, Officers observed the victim being treated by Birmingham Fire and Rescue. The victim was suffering from multiple gunshot wounds to the body. Also, there was a second male who suffered a gunshot wound to the ankle. The victim was transported to UAB where he was pronounced deceased by the medical staff.

Detectives learned the victim and several males were sitting outside the apartment when two of the males started arguing and immediately multiple shots were fired. It appeared multiple people were shooting due to the shell castings found at the scene. No suspects have been arrested at this time. "This incident could have been far worse. Unfortunately, when dangerous people hang out with other dangerous people that choose to do dangerous things normally bad things happen."

If there is anyone who has information pertaining to the case, please contact the B.P.D. Homicide Unit @ 254-1764 or Crime Stoppers @ 254-7777.
