Birmingham Police Department Chaplain Corps and Volunteers in Police Services Program

The Birmingham Police Department announces that the BPD Chaplain Corps and Volunteers in Police Services Programs are seeking additional volunteers. The Volunteer in Police Services Program assists the Department in various administrative tasks such as hospital visits, funerals and weddings. The Police Services Program serves more than 1,100 Department employees and their families, as well as provide services inside the City Jail and surrounding law enforcement agencies.

Chaplains training will take place on Tuesday, February 19, 2019 from 6pm to 8 pm. Annual training for the VIPS (Volunteers in Police Services Programs) will be held on Wednesday, February 20, 2019 from 6pm to 8 pm. All training will be held at the Shields Conference Center located at 3969 14th Avenue North.

If you are interested in either program or you have any questions, contact the Birmingham Police Department Community Service Division at (205) 933-4175 or via e-mail at bpdvolunteers@birminghamal.gov
