Robbery Investigation Arrests

The Birmingham Police Department reports that East Precinct officers and detectives have made three arrests in connection with multiple robbery investigations.

On Thursday, January 17, 2019, East Precinct officers observed three suspects in the 300 block of 83RD Street South. The suspects were in a Dodge Ram pickup that was reported stolen out of Fultondale. Officers attempted to initiate a traffic stop, but the suspects refused and a brief vehicle pursuit ensued. A short time later the suspects wrecked at the corner of 66th Street and 1ST Avenue South. All three suspects were taken into custody.

Investigations by BPD Robbery detectives revealed that the suspects have been identified as the suspects in several crimes.

The first suspect has been identified as:

Corey Bullock, B/M, 21, of Birmingham, Alabama. Four Robbery first degree warrants have been obtained against the suspect. Additional warrants for Receiving Stolen Property and Attempting to Elude have been obtained against the suspect.

The second suspect has been identified as:

Leondre Maddox, B/M, 18, of Birmingham, Alabama. Three Robbery first degree warrants have been obtained against the suspect. An additional warrant for Attempting to Elude has been obtained against the suspect.
