Officer Involved Shooting

The Birmingham Police Department reports that an officer involved shooting investigation is underway. The incident occurred on Saturday June 15, 2019 at approximately 11:29 p.m.

An Officer attempted to conduct a traffic stop occupied by two subjects at Ave I & 21st Street Ensley. The driver of the vehicle failed to yield and a pursuit ensued. During the pursuit shots were fired at the Officer. The pursuit ended in the 3200 block of Allison Bonnet Memorial Drive in the city limits of Hueytown, Al. Additional shots were fired resulting in both subjects being wounded by gunfire.

One of the suspects was transported to UAB Hospital with non-life threatening injuries. The other suspect was pronounced deceased on the scene by Hueytown Fire and Rescue as well as Jefferson County Corner.

An Officer was transported to UAB Highlands with minor injuries.

The shooting investigation will be conducted by the Alabama Bureau of Investigation. Updates will be provided as they come available.
