Kidnapping Investigation Update

The Birmingham Police Department reports that the two persons of interest have been arrested on unrelated charges to the kidnapping investigation of Kamille McKinney.

During the course of the investigation, detectives interviewed both subjects in relation to the disappearance of Kamille McKinney. Although investigators were unable to gather pertinent information on the location of Kamille McKinney, evidence was obtained to allow detectives to obtain warrants on both subjects.

The first subject has been identified as:

Patrick Devone Stallworth, B/M, 39 years old, of Birmingham, Alabama. Four warrants for Possession of Child Pornography with a $200,000.00 total bond were obtained against the subject. Investigators also obtained three warrants for Possession of Child Pornography with Intent to Distribute with a $300,000.00 bond total. Stallworth was found to have the information on his cell phone.

The second subject has been identified as:

Derrick Irisha Brown, B/F, 29 years old, of Birmingham, Alabama. A probation revocation with no bond was executed against the subject. The original charge was kidnapping.

The kidnapping investigation of Kamille McKinney is ongoing.

The missing child has been identified as:

Kamille McKinney, B/F, 3 years old, of Birmingham, Alabama.
