

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wednesday, February 10, 2021

11:00 a.m. CDT

Media Release No. 36

Ariana Garza
Public Relations Manager
Office: (205) 279-8937

BPD Releases 2020 End of Year Report

The Birmingham Police Department is committed to transparency and providing information to community members. The 2020 End of Year Report has been made public and is available for viewing on the BPD website.

We invite community members to explore the 23 pages of the report, which includes the following:

- Letters from Chief of Police Patrick D. Smith and Mayor Randall L. Woodfin
- BPD's Motto, Mission, Vision and Core Values
- List of BPD Command Staff
- Statistics related to crime reduction, firearms, narcotics, traffic citations, parking, calls for service
- Impact of community engagement events
- Special programs
- COVID-19 impact
- Tributes to officers killed or injured in the line of duty
- List of officers honored
- Special thanks to federal partners and community partners
- Information regarding BPD's new smartphone app

To view the full report, visit police.birminghamal.gov and click on the "Accountability" tab.