Arrest Made After Threats Made at Local Daycare

The Birmingham Police Department reports an arrest has been made after threats were made toward staff and students at a local day care.

The suspect has been identified as Kayla Warren, (26), b/f, of Birmingham, Alabama.

On June 13, 2022, Kayla Warren made a threat to shoot staff members and students at New Hope Preschool after an altercation with a staff member. The incident was reported to the Birmingham Police Department and immediate action was taken.

Detectives obtained a warrant with the Jefferson County District Attorney's Office for Terroristic Threats towards a School. Warren was arrested and being held on $15,000 bond at the Jefferson County Jail.

The Birmingham Police Department will remain steadfast in our efforts to ensure the safety of our learning centers, places of worship, and local businesses. If you aware of any threats of violence, please report by contacting 911.
