Birmingham Police Chief Scott Thurmond Addresses Two Separate Shooting Incidents Involving Children

This past weekend our city experienced two separate incidents where two innocent children were victimized due to gun violence. This unfortunate event is deeply saddening and absolutely unacceptable. It is vital for us to acknowledge the shared responsibility we carry to ensure the safety of our children. Resolving conflicts, particularly those involving guns, holds paramount significance. We urge any witnesses to kindly come forward and provide the Birmingham Police Department with any information you may have.

Stay united for the safety of our community.

Police Chief Scott Thurmond
